VI. Resolution of Recognition for Judy Kinner, Conservation Commission

Don Turner, Jr., Town Manager

Don Turner, Jr., Town Manager provided a brief history of Judy Kinner's service on the Milton Conservation Commission, and reflected on her dedication and hard work set forth as the lead coordinator for Green-Up Day in Milton for the last five years. He then presented the following Resolution:

RESOLUTION
RECOGNITION OF JUDY KINNER FOR HER SERVICE AND DEDICATION TO THE TOWN OF MILTON

WHEREAS, Judy Kinner became involved as an advocate for preserving a large parcel of town owned property located off Westford Road in the 1990's when there were discussions amongst Town leaders to sell the property. That property is now known as the Town Forest; and

WHEREAS, Judy began her volunteer work in 1996 on the town forest and trails sub-committee of the Conservation Commission; and

WHEREAS, in 1997 Judy was appointed as a member of the Conservation Commission where she has actively served for the last 21 years; and

WHEREAS, Judy has worked tirelessly to promote the use of the Town Forest, Eagle Mountain Natural Area and the Lamoille River Walk. The hundreds of hours she has committed to these areas included numerous meetings, building bridges, marking and improving trails, pursuing grants and anything else necessary to ensure that users had a good experience during their visit to these beautiful Town properties; and

WHEREAS, in 2016 the Conservation Commission assumed the responsibility for Milton's Annual Green-Up Day. Judy has championed this effort on behalf of the commission since then and will be missed; and

WHEREAS, the positive interaction citizens have experienced as a result of the Conservation Commission and Judy's work are important to the goodwill of our community; and

WHEREAS, Judy and her husband Linus who has also committed many volunteer hours to the Town have decided to downsize and relocate at this point in their lives; and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we the members of the Milton Selectboard on behalf of the entire Milton Community hereby extend to Judy Kinner our sincere gratitude and appreciation for her service to the Town of Milton, and our best wishes to her and Linus for their continued success and happiness in the years to come.

Motion was made by C. Taylor that the members of the Milton Selectboard on behalf of the entire Milton Community hereby extend to Judy Kinner their sincere gratitude and appreciation for her service to the Town of Milton, and their best wishes to her and Linus for their continued success and happiness in the years to come, with a second by M. Morgan. Motion approved unanimously.

VII. Bombardier Park Mountain Bike Proposal

Jenna Tucker, Director of Recreation

Ryan Bushey, Recreation Commission Member

Jenna Tucker, Director of Recreation, provided a brief presentation on the proposed Bombardier Park Mountain Bike Trail project. Further discussion took place regarding future recreation facilities and amenities to be discussed in future goal setting sessions and/or meetings.

Motion made by M. Morgan to move ahead with the Mountain Bike Proposal, with a second by B. Steady. Motion approved unanimously.
