On July 11th, 2014 at 4:00 p.m. the Milton Police Department was called to a residence on Manley Road in the Town of Milton for a reported home invasion. Investigation revealed the home owner was in the basement of his home and heard footsteps in the upstairs living area. The home owner went to investigate to noise and was confronted by a male suspect coming down the stairs. During the incident the male suspect claimed he was delivering telephone books.

The male was described at 5'10" to 6'1" in height, medium build, wearing sunglasses with a baseball cap. The male left the area in a white or cream colored vehicle.

It's believed at this time the victim's wallet was stolen from the home.
